Medical Evidence Proforma

Before completing this form you MUST read paragraph F of the Late Submission of Course Work Policy and guidelines as third party documentary evidence is not always required. Only use this form if your circumstances fall under the categories where medical evidence is required, as listed in the guidelines. Your Medical Practice is likely to reserve the right to refuse to provide evidence if your claim falls outside the guidelines or it may impose a charge.

When you have completed Section 1, it is your responsibility to take this form to your Medical Practice for completion of Section 2. The College will not get this signed on your behalf. This form should be attached to your extenuating circumstances form. If the Practice prefers to use their own procedures, you should attach whatever documentation they give you.
